

design radar

Our new columnist, designer Linda Boronkay, on the pieces catching her eye

1 SOFT TOUCH

Once you have a mohair rug you never look back – it's a new level of softness and sheen. Mohair rug in Stripe Jade, £2,210 (1.83x1.22m) or £990m, The Rug Company

2 SO VEIN

This vintage table is an investment but it will last for generations, its character never fading. 1970s marble coffee table, £1,560, AU Bespoke

3 ROCK STAR

These vases are all one-offs, made of marble found discarded by quarries in Carrara. Drill vase, €500, Studio EO

4 IN A MOOD

I'm always on the lookout for low-level atmospheric lamps, and this works in both a contemporary and more traditional setting. Grey concrete ribbed lamp, £35, houseof

5 POWER UP

These cushions add an extra layer to the room, the colours punchy enough to be cool but not overbearing. Silk Sari cushions, £110 each, Sister by Studio Ashby

6 ROUND OFF

I'm drawn to this sofa because of its simple curvilinear lines – striking yet timeless. Palais Royal sofa, price on request, Pierre Augustin Rose

design radar

Interior designer Linda Boronkay on the pieces catching her eye this month

1 ART HOUSE

This pattern is derived from an original 17th-century design and I find it so romantic thinking about the places it's been used. Tree of Life fabric, £356m, Robert Kime

2 TAKE A SEAT

My go-to fabric company is also making furniture and this chair is an easy shape to upholster in all kinds of patterns. Buenos Aires armchair, £2,059, Pierre Frey

3 ON THE PULL

Add awesome hardware to tired furniture to give it new life. Brass bow handles, £54 each, Beata Heuman

4 CHIC PLEATS

Create a warm atmosphere with low-level lighting. This dynamic shape reminds me of a dancing figure. Giallo Girasole lamp, £186, Oscar Piccolo

5 BY HAND

This handmade urn is inspired by mosaic volute-krater vases made in Naples in the 1800s, but because of its materiality and colour it's very modern. Giusti urn, $550, F Taylor

6 TOUCH WOOD

I've always had a soft spot for burl, so I'm happy to see it's making a comeback. This piece was designed by Josef Frank in 1954. Chest of drawers 2170, £14,000, Svenskt Tenn

design radar

Interior designer Linda Boronkay on the pieces catching her eye this month

1 THE SHINING

Tibor is one of my go-to fabric houses for beautiful colour combinations. This has a slight sparkle and is reversible, which makes it diverse. Luna Rose, £245m, Tibor

2 IN THE FOLD

Who doesn't want a soft cloud floating in their room? Sculpted from layers of banana fibre, it gives out a beautiful glow. Anders light, £1,435, Pinch

3 ON POINT

The handmade nature of these elegant candle holders ensures each piece is completely unique. A La Pointe candle holder by Laurence Brabant, £30, &YOU

4 SIT BACK

This 1957 piece is beautiful from every angle and can be dressed with loose cushions. Lounge chair and ottoman by Ilmari Tapiovaara for Esposizione La Permanente Mobili, €5,500, Morentz

5 PHOTO FINISH

Shira Barzilay's style is very graphic, fun and instantly recognisable. 2/12 Hand-drawn doodle print by Shira Barzilay, £50, Koketiv

6 TWO TONE

Travertine and black marble are both slick and modern materials, and the way Lee Broom combines them forms an amazing centrepiece. Tribeca coffee table, from £7,900, Lee Broom

design radar

Interior designer Linda Boronkay on the pieces catching her eye this month

1 BLUE WAVE

Unbelievably, this Swedish classic was originally created as a prototype for a school project. Etcetera lounge chair, price on request, Artilleriet

2 HANG COOL

This beautiful clear bubble pendant of blown Murano glass is the perfect mix of classic and contemporary. BALL #002 pendant, £416, Sogni Di Cristallo

3 THE CRAFT

This vibrant basket is made by hand, so each piece is completely individual and by buying it you are supporting weaving communities in the Bolgatanga region of Ghana. Basket, £38, Montes & Clark

4 ALL IN HAND

With a nod to figural art, this brass catchall helps to chicly organise your vanity. Modernist hand catchall, $415, Casa Shop

5 EYES ON YOU

Gergei Erdei is a former womenswear designer for Alessandro Michele. His style is reminiscent of Gucci's, but he also manages to keep it unique for this investment piece. Grand Tour cushion in Jade, £300, Gergei Erdei

6 ALL AGLOW

Not only is this a beautifully scented candle but it can be repurposed as a container for trinkets. Swirl Stack candle, £275, Tom Dixon

